

K-Love serves as one of our only Christian radio stations in our community. Without it families wouldn't have positive, uplifting music and programming to listen to. I believe families need good positive music. This music sends the message of God's love to our community.